Lands Practically Without Milk.
Japan and China are countries whose great populations have existed and increased without one of the articles of diet that to Americans seems an elementary food—milk. There is practically no production of milk in either of these countries, almost the only supply being imported from foreign nations in the form of condensed milk in cans.

THE CLERK GUARANTEED IT.

"A customer came into my store the other day and said to one of my clerks, 'Have you anything that will cure diarrhoea?' and my clerk went and got him a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and said to him, 'If this does not cure you, I will not charge you a cent for it.' So he took it home and came back in a day or two and said he was cured," writes J. H. Berry & Co., Salt Creek, Va. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv. d&w

DAILY EXPRESS ICE BLANKET

Saves 1/2 Your Ice Bills.

To its many subscribers, old and new, the Daily Express is offering a most unique premium that should at once become popular in every home in Chickasha where there is a refrigerator or ice box. The blanket is made of vegetable parchment, is thoroughly sanitary, and its value lies in the fact that it excludes heat from the outside and retains the cold air beneath. Just place the blanket loose over exposed side of ice, top or front, tucking the edges in. It will keep the outside warm air from coming in contact with the ice and save one half, and will not decrease refrigeration. The blanket is not porous so it will not become musty or strong smelling, won't dissolve or go to pieces when wet, so you need have no fear of clogging the drain pipe. Don't use any more porous, unsanitary cloths, burlap sacks or newspapers on your ice.

The only consideration necessary to secure one of these blankets, is to pay one month's subscription in advance to the Daily Express—forty cents—and our collector, or collectors, and you one. Or the blankets may be obtained on the same terms at the Daily Express office.

If you do not desire to advance your subscription one month, the ice blanket may be bought at this office. Price 10 cents.

YOUR COUGH CAN BE STOPPED.

Using care to avoid draughts, exposure, sudden changes, and taking a treatment of Dr. King's New Discovery, will positively relieve, and in time will surely rid you of your cough. The first dose soothes the irritation, checks your cough, which stops in a short time. Dr. King's New Discovery has been used successfully for 45 years and is guaranteed to cure you. Money back if it fails. Get a bottle from your druggist; it costs only a little and will help you so much.

Obligation Shifted.

A wedding ceremony took place at the bride's home. As soon as the service was over the nephew of the bride, aged 5 years, was the first to break the ice by saying in anything but a quiet tone, "Now if Aunt Ellen dies it won't cost us anything to bury her, will it mamma?"

IS SICKNESS A SIN?

If not, it's wicked to neglect illness and means of relief. It's wicked to endure liver ills, headache, indigestion, constipation, when one dose of Po-Do-Lax gives relief. Po-Do-Lax is podophyllin (May apple), without the gripe. It arouses the liver, increases the flow of bile—nature's antiseptic in the bowels. Your constipation and other ills disappear over-night because Po-Do-Lax has helped nature to remove the cause. Get a bottle from your druggist today. Get rid of your constipation over-night.—Adv. d&w

YEARS NOT A BURDEN

OLD AGE HAS PRACTICALLY CEASED TO BE BOGY.

Man of Today Refuses to Be Considered Old When He Arrives at the Three Score Years and Ten—Some Examples.

Old age used to be regarded as an incurable disease; a time to be looked forward to with horror; a period of useless cumbering of the earth.

That bogy is scared away by the testimony of some of the living celebrities who have left the biblical "three score and ten" landmark far behind them, says a writer in the Milwaukee Sentinel.

Says John Burroughs, the great naturalist, at seventy-seven:

"I am in better health and more able to do my work at seventy-seven than I was at forty-seven or at fifty-seven. I have produced more manuscripts during the last three years than during any other three years of my life, and of a kind that has made unusual intellectual demands upon me."

"Old age is not such a bugaboo after all. He is, in many ways, better to live with than youth, because he leaves you more at your ease; you are in the calmer waters; the fret and fever of life have greatly abated. Old age brings the philosophical mind; he brings a deeper, wider outlook upon life; he brings more tolerance and charity and good will. I did not squander my youth in excesses, and hence I am not bankrupt in my old age."

Amelia E. Barr, the novelist, who is six years older than Burroughs, and who writes six hours a day, gives this recipe for staying young in the twilight:

"I have constantly given my mind plenty of new thoughts; and this mental diet has kept me young. It is routine that ages. Even in my sleep I am often mentally busy. I think I know consciously that when I rest Iarken. I have constantly proved that intellectual activity infuses life into every part of the body. As far as possible I avoid anger or worry, for one hour of such debilitating mental exercise destroys all personal magnetism; and what passes between them and the soul I do not care to say."

"I keep my health because I keep my illusions. I will not believe that every one is false. I will not believe that hope tells a flattering tale, or that friendship is only a name, or that true love has fled from earth and that the fear of God has vanished. And above all other reasons for my good health I place the vivifying power of love. Love is life."

Cardinal Gibbons, eighty years old and in the prime of his powers, says: "I believe firmly that the critical time of life for the making or marring of a sound constitution is the period of youth. The seeds of weakness are sown in the system then; by irregularity of life, particularly in the hours allotted for sleep and rest; by excess in eating and drinking; by grosser excesses; and by lack of proper exercise."

"The rules of health from which I have never swerved from my youth are: Regularity of life; moderation in eating and drinking; exercise proper to my age and profession; avoidance of worry; and an ever abiding trust in God's providence. I have always been unsavory in the matter of sleep. Early to bed is the wisest of all laws for him who has work to do and ambition to do it well."

Queen Margherita's Retort.
That was a bright reply which the queen mother of Italy, the extremely popular Margherita, sent back to Kaiser Wilhelm, who had offered advice that seemed to be important: "In the house of Savoy we reign one at a time."

Harrison Morris of this city, according to "Girard" in the Philadelphia Ledger, says he was not surprised to read such a happy retort. He was one of our commissioners of art, and in Rome attended a very handsome luncheon given by the dowager queen.

"I was astonished," said Mr. Morris, "to observe that the king's mother spoke to every guest in his native tongue. To me she talked in excellent English. A Japanese representative was standing beside me, and I ventured the remark to her majesty that here was a person to whom she could not talk in his own language. To my utter amazement and to the delight of the Japanese, she spoke several sentences in that tongue. Then she laughed and explained that they were the only Japanese phrases she knew."

Diamond Oldest of Riches.

The discoverer of diamonds is unknown. From references in Exodus it is apparent that the diamond was a precious stone in Egypt in those early times; and even before that it was known in India, where probably it was first obtained. The name is derived from the Greek word "adamas," meaning "unsubduable."

From Pliny, a writer of the first century, we learn that the diamond was regarded as the most valuable of all things, and only a few kings ever could afford to buy them. But as no means of artificial producing had been discovered the stone, depreciated in value, so that the ruby and the emerald became more precious. The discovery by Ludwig von Berghem, in 1476, of a mode of polishing and cutting it at once returned this gem to the first place among precious stones.

A Mean Device.

"What are you buying so much disinfectant for? Are you afraid of germs?"

"No, but I hope to establish a temporary peace zone."

"In what way?"

"After I disinfect our premises thoroughly the wife doesn't have any callers for a day or two."
